

A DAY OF AN AMERICAN PAST TIME: "Take Me Out to the Ballgame"

For folks not attending O'Fest in Pittsburg, what say we create some fun for ourselves, family and an opportunity to take our cars out for a run? July being the month we celebrate our country's independence, lets enjoy a favorite past time and our BMW's on July 14th by coming out to root for the Down East Wood Ducks at Granger Stadium in Kinston.

Since many of us will be coming from multiple locations, we will meet at Sale BMW in Kinston at 1:00 PM. From there, we will drive over to the parking lot at the corner of W. Gordon St. and N. Heritage St, where you can wander off to see the CSS Neuse II and take a tour of the Mother Earth Brewery before having a late lunch at the Boiler Room Oyster Bar. Afterwards, we head over to the stadium located at 400 E. Grainger Ave, Kinston.

When: July 14, 2018

The game against the Myrtle Beach Pelicans begins at 6 PM.

There is a bonus to this game. It is Christmas in July where the first 1000 fans will receive a Christmas ornament. A second bonus, bring an empty Pepsi can and get $3 off the $12 ticket price.

Event: Baseball, Eats, and BMWs

Location: Meet at Sale BMW 1053 Hwy 258 North Kinston, NC 28504

Time: 1:00 PM

alexkordis@tarheelbmwcca.org