

Curve Balls in Historic Kinston!

A Summer Day on the Banks of The Neuse River

- What: A spirited, family friendly, adventure to one of the historic “down east” towns which has become a mecca for both food and Civil War historical artifacts. Kinston is home to Vivian Howard’s varied and exciting culinary experiences ... the CSS Neuse (Iron Clad from 1864) ... and a range of microbreweries! Cool shops to explore too.
- When: Depart on Saturday, July 14th, 2018 at noon. Come early for coffee at 11:30am!
- Where: Departure from The Grocery Bag (Percy Flower’s Country Store), 4879 NC-42, Clayton, NC 27527. This is at the intersection of NC-42 and Buffalo Rd., across the street from Harris Teeter.
- Objective: A fun and enjoyable family outing that promises terrific roads and food ... and a leisurely walk back in time through historic Kinston, surrounded by the meandering Neuse River. Wrap it up with an evening of baseball ... America’s other pastime.
- Duration: Figure 8-9 hours including driving and a ball game with the Down East Wood Ducks!
