VIR Car Corral

Once again, the BMW CCA hospitality tent and car corral were back at Virginia International Raceway August 22-24 to watch the weekend of IMSA racing, co-sponsored by the Tarheel and National Capital chapters. My friends decided to do Saturday only and we all got on the road by 8:00. We arrived at VIR, parked, and checked in. We missed the early morning Meet and Greet with the teams but soon it was time for the raffle.

BMW Car Club of America Tarheel Chapter

ON THE COVER:

Many nice raffle items were given away, thanks to the sponsors, including Liqui Moly. Next up was lunch with delicious BBQ, sides, and a dessert. There were plenty of snacks, food, and beverages for all throughout the day. Thank you, Paul Seto for once again planning and organizing a great event.

The BMW Performance Center had the latest generation of M3s there, to be driven by Mike Renner and Andy Van Slyke for hot laps on both days (cover photo). Mike stopped by the tent as well on Saturday.

We were able to watch the GTD & GTD Pro practice in the morning as well as the GSX/LMP3 VP Challenge companion race. A Turner Motorsport M4 GT4 won their class and Samantha Tan finished 4th in class. Next up were parade laps for the BMWs and then the Corvettes. It felt like the BMWs were faster. Many attendees enjoyed their time on the track.

Soon it was time for the main Saturday race to start. This was the 2-hour long Michelin Pilot Challenge race for the GS and TCR classes. Many fans gathered at the fence for photos and to cheer the drivers on as it was a beautiful day. Some stayed under the shade of the tent to watch the closed-circuit TV broadcast. Artist Bill Patterson was in our tent and quickly painted the Paul Miller M3 in action as fans watched on in amazement. The painting was to be auctioned off Sunday.

A Mustang led early as the BMWs continued to battle through the field. There were some crazy incidents throughout the afternoon, including a big one in turn 1 involving a BMW trying to pass a Mustang. The VIR safety teams did a great job, and the cars were back to green. The #28 Porsche Cayman GT4 won with the #96 Turner BMW finishing seventh.

We decided it was time for us to head home but many stayed on for the GTD and GTD Pro qualifying for the Sunday race.

Sunday started as another picture perfect weather day with a visit from the BMW Performance Center and fellow club member, Mike Renner. One of the big advantages to joining our CCA corral are all the prizes you can win and this year didn't disappoint. Mike gave away two (2) driving events to two (2) different CCA members; who doesn't love driving someone else's brand new BMW using their brakes, tires, and gas! Mike and fellow instructor, Andy Van Cleef, also gave out several passes for hot laps around the track in their G80 M3 Competition, beautifully outfitted in BMW Performance Center livery.

After all the giveaways, we headed over to the paddock for our meet & greet with Paul Miller Racing. Team Manager, Dusty Renteria, led the discussion about their two (2) M4 GT3 race cars and introduced several of the drivers who were mentally prepping for that afternoon's WeatherTech race. After a very cool, interactive exchange with the defending Michelin GT Challenge champions, it was time to head back to the tent and get ready for the main event.

After a delicious lunch (catering this year was incredible!), some of the volunteers had a chance to take part in an IMSA hot pit tour. When walking towards the pit entrance, both Paul Miller BMWs were leading the race and were called in to double stack right in front of us! Unfortunately the #48 car caught fire causing the race to go yellow and was towed out of harms way.

Meanwhile, the #1 car finally pitted and we had front row seats. The team performed a flawless tire change and refuel and headed back out to race again. Sadly, it didn't work out as they finished sixth in the GTD Pro class. Unlike last year when Paul Miller won the race, there was no podium celebration for BMW. But, this was an awesome weekend full of great memories with incredible CCA friends; hopefully you'll join us next year.

Charlotte Area 2 August Dinner

Our monthly dinner for the north Charlotte Area 2 varies the date and locations. Sometimes it's in the Concord area, sometimes in the Lake Norman area. For August we worked with Hendrick BMW Northlake to have a Cars and Coffee type event Friday August 8th. George Kail helped iron out the details with Cam Warren, the new manager of the dealership.

I thought to arrive early to help orchestrate the parking, but many were already there. I recognized many friends from the entire Charlotte area but noticed many new faces as well. We ended up with one of the largest monthly crowds, aside from holiday dinners. Soon the lot was filled with every BMW from a beautiful E24 M6 to an Imola Red Z8 to a new i4.

It was a pleasant evening for top-down motoring, so that brought out a lot of convertibles and roadsters. We were lucky that the rain held off all evening, as the weather had been miserable for the week leading up. Rowdy Dogs provided the concessions with dogs, brats, chips and drinks, all provided no charge, thanks to the dealership. Kyle gave a brief speech thanking everyone for attending and introduced Cam. Aside from new management, other changes have been made including increased service capacity.

Hendrick BMW Northlake provided trinkets for all and very nice raffle prizes. Two persons went home with cool models. After browsing all the cars, including the beautiful new BMWs in the showroom, soon it was time to wrap up the event. Be sure to check emails and our Facebook page for future dinner times and locations.
